This building, containing over 9,000 square feet of floor space, is a gift of Mrs. Elva K. Leisy as a memorial to her parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. P. Krehbiel. Completely remodeled and arranged for office use by the Conference, it now houses all Conference offices, vault, bookstore, and storage facilities.

Conveniently located across from the post office in Newton, it is assured of quick communication which is so essential to the work of the Conference. Newton, a city of over 14,500, is a main division point on the Santa Fe and on the crossroads of several major highways.

Besides the central offices of the Conference, other Mennonite institutions are located in the Newton area — Mennonite Press (jointly owned by Conference and college), Bethel College, Bethel Home and Hospital, Prairie View Hospital, Meadowlark Homestead, and the MCC offices and clothing and relief center for the Midwest.

The central office facilities and bookstore are here to serve you in the area of missions, mutual aid, pensions, relief, peace, disaster service, Christian education, Christian literature, books, Bibles, women's work, projects for men's groups, large or small investments through wills and annuities for the cause of Christ, in fact these offices now can serve in almost any matter that concerns the church and her people. It's for you to use, to visit and see for yourself what is being done here. The central offices are yours. Let them help you in making your Christian witness!

FOREWORD

For many the Handbook of Information, published annually by the General Conference Mennonite Church, has become a finger-tip reference to conference facts and figures which are highly significant and useful. From year to year this publication undergoes careful revision so that its information is as accurate as possible and presented in usable form. We are deeply indebted to P. K. Regier, Executive Secretary of the General Conference, and to A. J. Richert, Executive Secretary of the Board of Business Administration, for the work they have done on this issue. As any errors may be observed in this publication, the prompt reporting of these will be considered a service gratefully received.

The information here published is not only handy for reference. It can also be used by local churches, district conferences, and conference boards as a resource for self-evaluation especially in the areas of membership and stewardship trends. As the General Conference approaches its Centennial (1960), this publication becomes a real aid in helping us to see where we are so that we may plan with intelligent faith for the days to come.

Praising God for His grace upon the work of our conference for another year we pray that His blessing may also be upon this labor of love as it goes forth in the Name of Christ.

The General Conference believes firmly in the congregational form of church government, whereby the local church retains maximum freedom of self-determination. For this reason the Conference organization is strongly democratic in form and function. It is a deliberative body, carrying powers of recommendation but not of legislation. Its policies, plans, and recommendations are generally formulated by its Executive Committee, officers, and boards and presented to the Conference for endorsement, modification, or rejection. Its work is accomplished under the supervision of the Executive Committee, the officers, and the boards.—(Constitution Sec. A)

GENERAL CONFERENCE CENTENNIAL COMMEMORATION, 1959-60

The General Conference Mennonite Church was founded in 1860. That means that 1960 marks the centennial year. In view of the fact that the triennial General Conference sessions will be held in 1959 it has been decided that the two events should be combined.

Sunday, August 16, 1959, will be devoted to the Centennial Commemoration in every congregation of the Conference and particularly in the Conference sessions at Bluffton, Ohio. The Sunday school, the worship service, a pageant presented both afternoon and evening, and discussion groups will feature the leading of a people under the mighty hand of the Lord from the early days to the present. This occasion should give us an opportunity to look back with thanksgiving, look around us to see clearly where the Lord is calling us to new tasks and to look into the future with a confidence that comes from the Lord.

A booklet entitled A Century of Witness is being prepared for the centennial. A Study Conference to be held in Iowa in 1960, where the Conference was organized one hundred years ago, is to bring the commemoration to a climax and close. Whether this event will become meaningful for decades to come will depend on the individual congregations, on individual members and on whether we corporately repent of our sins of commission and omission, have a clear vision for the future and consecrate ourselves to greater service. The words "Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever" (Hebrews 13: 8) could well serve as a motto for this occasion.

Cornelius Krahn, Chairman
Centennial Committee

Your Support Is Needed!

Never before have the four boards of the Conference been faced with greater opportunities for service in almost every area of need than this year. Although more work is being done by the Conference than ever before, new requests for financial and spiritual needs keep coming in. How shall these needs be met? That is the question!

DISCIPLINE STUDY

The Study Conference on the Believers' Church in Chicago had as one of its recommendations the study of discipline by a special committee to be appointed after the conference. The Executive Committee of the Conference assigned the general responsibility for this task to the Church, Home, and Community Committee, a committee functioning under the Board of Education and Publication. A Discipline Study Committee was appointed. The following persons are members of this committee: Jacob T. Friesen, Chairman; C. J. Dyck, A. E. Kreider, Henry Poettcker. The committee has adopted the following method for carrying out its assignment: The first period is assigned for research and study. This will be followed by a formulation of a statement on discipline by members of the committee with the help of others. Then this statement will be referred to groups within the Conference for discussion and suggestions, after which the statement will be reformulated and presented to the General Conference August, 1959.

CONFERENCE GOALS FOR THE 1956-1959 TRIENNIAL

2. Every congregation seeking a mission outpost.
3. Fifteen new congregations by 1959.
4. Every member a tither.

General Conference Missions and Evangelism

The responsibility of Conference missions and evangelism at home and abroad is given to the Board of Missions. While the Board divides into "foreign" and "home" sections for certain work, all directions and resolutions come from the total Board.

The section on Foreign Missions calls and sends out missionaries to the foreign fields and supervises the work of missions there.

The section on Home Missions calls and sends out missionaries to the areas within

North American and also among Mennonite colonists in South America, and supervises the work of missions there.

The following committees are auxiliaries to the Board of Missions, the membership of each being composed of two who are members of the Board and three or more others appointed by the Board:

1. The Committee on Church Unity promotes unity among the member churches of the Conference and the branches of Mennonites throughout the world. It receives applications from congregations and church conferences seeking membership within the General Conference Mennonite Church, studies such application and forwards them with recommendations to the Executive Committee of the General Conference.
2. The Committee on Evangelism promotes interest and a sense of concern in the area of gospel witness and outlines training for an effective witness in our churches and mission points at home and abroad.
3. The Committee on the Ministry arranges for a program of recruitment for the ministry. It offers advice and counsel in regard to training and recommends scholarships for worthy candidates. It provides a program of placement of ministers.

TRENDS

In missions a year is but a span of time within a continuing program. All work that is brought to completion and all plans for future projects are part of an on-going process. Still trends and emphases can be discerned. These change as opportunities, responsibilities, and world situations change. Four trends can be mentioned:

1. Our Home Mission churches of Canada and the United States are accepting greater obligations in the financial support of the local church program. These churches are recognizing that stewardship is a vital part of Christian discipleship. We are encouraged as we receive word that some of these Home Mission churches will assume the full support of the pastor who serves them.

2. There is a deeper appreciation of the fraternal bonds that exist between our churches and the sister churches of other countries. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stephen, Rev. Kazadi Matthew, and Rev. Samuel Hsieh are evidences of the deep Christian fellowship that is possible among people whose first concern is discipleship to Jesus Christ. We cherish our fellow believers in Christ for we have come to see that their devotion and ministry also enriches and strengthens our lives.

3. The establishment and growth of young churches is significant in evangelism. Missionaries are establishing the church as well as proclaiming the gospel. Therefore, we find new strength coming to us. National leadership is directing a spiritual ministry through national churches. This ministry can release a convincing witness among non-Christians that the life lived in Jesus Christ is truly abundant.

4. The desire to understand the situation in which our mission programs are being conducted is increasing. Churches want to know about the religions, cultures, and political organizations which our mission programs encounter in the various countries. Our church membership wants to know the nature of an adequate mission program which will meet the needs of people in our mission areas. There is an interest in mission policies with the purpose of evaluating results we should be attaining in our mission areas. This is an indication that we are perhaps not entirely satisfied with our accomplishments of the past. The Board of Missions hopes to make available material that will result in a more intelligent understanding of the mission program of our churches.

We desire that God's provisions be set in array against the powers of evil, darkness, and sin. We, therefore, look forward for greater things to happen because we know that God has infinite resources available to us.

RELATIONSHIP WITH CONGO INLAND MISSION

The Board of Missions entered a co-operative arrangement with the Congo Inland Mission in 1943. Until that time the Evangelical Mennonite Church and the Central Conference had unitedly worked the Congo Inland Mission field. (The Evangelical Mennonite Brethren Conference entered Congo Inland Mission at the same time, that is, in 1943.)

In recent years the Central Conference has joined General Conference and the Evangelical Mennonite Conference and the Evangelical Mennonite Brethren Conference have joined.

The Congo Inland Mission Board is composed of representatives of all these Mennonite Conferences. Present General Conference members on the Congo Inland Mission Board are: Dr. S. F. Pannabecker, Rev. R. L. Hartzler, Rev. A. E. Kreider, Rev. Ben Esch, Rev. L. E. Troyer, Rev. J. P. Suderman, Mr. Maurice Stahly, Mr. Milo Miller, Rev. A. R. Shelly.

Mission candidates from General Conference churches are processed by our own General Conference Board of Missions, and if accepted they are recommended to the Congo Inland Mission. If suitable for a given opening, they are sent out by the Congo Inland Mission Board, our conference paying transportation, personal and field allowances, though they work under the Congo Inland Mission Board.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION

The Women's Missionary Association is an auxiliary organization of the General Conference. It seeks to aid the work of the four boards by way of promotion and financial support. It serves in a subsidiary capacity within the framework of the overall planning of the Conference, though it is not organically connected with any board. The financial budget of the WMA is taken bodily from the budgets of the Conference boards and that of the Mennonite Biblical Seminary, its only outside interest. The WMA operates on a limited administrative budget and provides within its capacity for the publication and distribution of mission study materials and a missionary monthly, MISSIONARY NEWS AND NOTES.

Relief and Rehabilitation

Even in a time of unparalleled surpluses, millions of people cry desperately for deliverance out of their suffering. Better than half of the funds of the Board of Christian Service go for foreign relief work, concentrated especially in the countries of the Near and Far East. Rehabilitation and development assistance, both to our Mennonite settlements and to neighbors in impoverished communities, is a second big share of relief work. The Trans-Chaco Roadway in Paraguay typifies such aid. Through the last few years the response to relief needs has dwindled; yet today our relief program specifically needs more canned meats, material aid, like Christmas bundles, etc., and direct cash than is now available.

Mexico

In Mexico the Board of Christian Service has taken over the agriculture, hospital and relief activities. Here we form a team with the Board of Mission workers who have a church and school program there. The possibilities of mission outreach to the Mexican people are tremendous, even though sometimes large problems loom in the way.

Voluntary Service

This past year we have sent out about a dozen young people to Mexico, Arizona, and Gulfport to serve under GC VS for a year or two. Other new projects for this year are Chicago and Philadelphia. We also have openings for adults who wish to serve under VS serving in homes and hospitals. About 155 GC young people served in the General Conference and MCC summer service program last year. A new area of challenge is Missions Pax. We now have GC fellows serving in Congo, Africa, India, Formosa and Japan are asking for Pax fellows also. The work includes maintenance, mechanical and carpentry work which missionaries would have to do otherwise.

Mutual Aid

A big step forward has been the incorporation of Mutual Aid Services, Inc., to carry forth a growing program of brotherhood assistance through self-help loans, placement services, and participation in brotherly hospital-surgical aid plan. Investments in Mutual Aid Services, Inc., offer a fine expression of Christian stewardship in a way that helps your brother and earns nicely for yourself.

Peace

These are perilous and momentous days. As true disciples we would witness against evil and speak for the right. We have urged that our people speak out against the continuation of the atomic testing program of our country and strive rather toward genuine efforts toward disarmament and reconciliation. Peace education has been stressed through a free youth peace and service mailing program, through the work of our special service and peace counselor, Bro. H. B. Schmidt, and through newly published materials including folders, pamphlets and audio-visual materials.

Social Concerns

This new committee is trying to wrestle with some of the issues such as race, temperance, labor, business, agriculture which continually confront us in our Christian life. A race film "Broken Mask" and a temperance film "Far From Alone" have been bought to rent out. Packets of literature on race and temperance have been accumulated to help churches to become informed. A group of five people went to the South to investigate some of the conditions of our Negro brethren, to see what our responsibility might be to them. Labor problems which came up in small industries in Kansas were discussed and wrestled with to try to find the Christian solution so that we might witness in every area of life.

Women in Church Vocations

Trained young women offer great potential of church related vocational service. Five young women are now in training in Mennonite colleges and our seminary in preparation for future service in the WCV program. Miss Marion Keeney serves as the promotional secretary for WCV. The first girls graduating from the training program will be "commissioned" this spring.

Homes and Hospitals

The homes for the aged and hospitals of our communities truly serve as a hand of Christ, reaching out to help the sick. Trained Christian workers for nursing, the chaplaincy and other positions requiring technical and service skills are urgently needed. The problem of a growing number of aged persons is of real concern also. We need to think creatively how we can help to make the "golden years" a time of meaningful and resourceful living for our older folks.

NEW SERVICE FRONTIERS

MISSIONS PAX—Men are now going to Formosa, India, Japan, and Congo Africa, to serve on the four mission fields in maintenance, mechanical and carpentry work. This can be service at its best, where it counts the most.

1-W MISSION—A number of fellows serving their alternative service are in regular earning service, but give all income above their own maintenance to some church project. This has been a very new but growing witness.

EXTENDED VS—The General Conference now has five places of VS service for a year or longer. Chicago and Philadelphia were added this year. MCC has had this type of service for a number of years now and numerous GCs serve in that program in addition to the GC program.

VOCATIONAL SERVICE—There are numerous places where Christian nurses, technicians, doctors, administrators, and teachers are needed in our own hospitals and schools. Such vocations are needed in our church by our church.

SUMMER SERVICE—Each year about 150 General Conference young people serve a summer in the Board of Christian Service and MCC summer programs. Many have seen a new vision and vital challenge by serving those in need.

1-W SERVICE—We are becoming increasingly convinced that whether the young man serves in Pax, VS, relief or earning service, that all must contribute a witness which would be worthy of any 1-W man. If soldiers go to war for years, we should at least make our service count the most.

WCV—A number of young women have banded together under Women in Church Vocations to make a united effort to search for and find a meaningful place of service in the Christian church. This is a means whereby they can have closer fellowship, help each other to find vocations, and learn to serve at their best.

HOW LONG RELIEF?

As long as there are people who suffer and die because of hunger, disease or ignorance, we will be called of God to share in unselfish love. Our brotherhood has responded generously to meet the needs precipitated by great disaster emergencies. However even in our modern world suffering of drastic proportions continues in overcrowded and undeveloped lands.

As Christians we cannot be true disciples of Christ and disregard the cries of the hungry and diseased children of God. Political, economic and cultural revolutions in the Near and Far Eastern countries have caused thousands of persons to flee their lands and homes. Famines, floods and earthquakes add to this untold misery by destroying crops and food supplies. Chronic illness, ignorance and poverty have become familiar companions to thousands of these unfortunates. Because God's children by the millions cry for help even today, this ministry of relief and service must continue.

Our mission is to witness to the needs of the total person, to both body and soul.

MUTUAL AID SERVICE, INC.

FOR ASSISTANCE

MUTUAL AID SERVICES, INC., offers to assist you and your congregation in a number of ways. It is your organization for service. It is a tool for applied discipleship living. As a tool it is meant to be used; it becomes useful only as it is applied to the task for which it is designed. The following are services which MUTUAL AID SERVICES, INC., offers for your participation.

Hospital-Surgical Aid Plan. The hospital-surgical aid plan of Mennonite Aid, Inc., is promoted for the General Conference congregations by MAS, INC. By sharing interests and costs, individuals and groups provide a fellowship of love while at the same time providing substantial financial assistance. MAS, INC. assists by providing information, promotion, counsel and co-operation in the General Conference.

Investment Services. Christian stewardship also means the use of our financial resources for Kingdom work. MUTUAL AID SERVICES, INC., offers you one avenue of financial investment with stewardship goals. In MAS, INC., your investments earn $3\frac{1}{2}$ or 4% (depending upon the time period), are secured and safe, and help to strengthen the church by assisting our brethren in establishing a home, a business, beginning a profession or completing an education for greater service in the Kingdom. We solicit your inquiries.

Placement Assistance. The services of the placement column in The Mennonite are available to you to assist in locating a job or in gathering information on relocation opportunities in another Mennonite rural or city community. In a similar way we seek to assist you in locating needed employees or personnel through the placement column. Assistance in placement activities are all offered without cost.

Mutual Aid Assistance Loans. Assistance loans are made to a limited number of young people who are active in the church, but who lack the financial means to establish a business, a home, to begin a profession, complete an education or set up housekeeping. Loans are modest in size and brotherly in policy, and aim to help young people work together to strengthen the church of Christ. Write for further details.

FOR DISCIPLESHIP

In serving the work of the church the following aims are sought by the new service corporation:

- To spread Jesus' teaching and the practice of discipleship living and Christian brotherhood.
- To develop methods of biblical-centered programs of sharing.
- To strengthen the local church for its witness to a sinful and competitive society.
- To help the brotherhood with practical problems of faith and life and to suggest answers in a motivation of love.

MENNONITE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

The Mennonite Central Committee is composed of twenty Mennonite groups or organizations working together in a worldwide program of relief and service activities carried on "in the name of Christ." MCC serves as a channel whereby individual churches may share in this ministry.

In the General Conference the Board of Christian Service is the co-ordinating body for the member congregations. Offerings, personal gifts and contributions from General Conference members should be channeled through the Board of Christian Service to give credit to the congregation where gifts originate.

MCC TODAY

The scope of the Mennonite Central Committee has grown from its beginning in relief to four major areas of responsibility:

Foreign relief and service—The program of providing and distributing clothing, food and services continues to be the major mission of the MCC. This section includes work with refugee migration and rehabilitation and the operation of the Pax overseas service program for young men.

Peace Section—This is your official Mennonite representative to Washington on all legislative matters relating to our nonresistant position. Related peace education and draft assistance is provided for all churches.

Voluntary Service and I-W Services—Operating with a Committee on Advice and Control and a I-W Co-ordinating Committee, this section oversees the activities of our young people in VS and our men in I-W alternative service.

Mennonite Mental Health Services—Three MCC operated mental hospitals now in operation and a proposed program for a fourth one in the east-central area are the administrative concern of MMHS.

BOARD OF EDUCATION AND PUBLICATION DOINGS

Most farms of yesteryear depended heavily on the "hired man" for the routine but important work of that vital agricultural institution. The most important commodity that he brought to the farm was his service.

It is the Board of Education and Publication's happy responsibility to supply the service that helps each congregation to fill its evangelistic role in its community and each Conference organization to carry on its ministry of faith and love.

Sunday school materials for children, young people, and adults are the lifeline of our training program to make the faith of the fathers the faith of our children, also. Beginning with Nursery materials published in 1957, each year until 1963 will see new additions to our supply of graded lessons. These lessons can be used to teach the Bible in the most effective way possible.

Besides curriculum material the Board publishes hymnbooks and study books for worship and further growth like The Youth Hymnary and Studies in Church Discipline. Our bookstores in Newton, Rosthern, and Berne make these things available to our churches and homes along with the many other materials needed in our Christian education programs.

But behind printed material there needs to be skill, vision, and ideas; these things come from people. The Board members and staff share these through correspondence and conferences. With the help of the district education committees the Board is promoting a series of leadership demonstration schools, held in various sections of the Conference. Here workers in Christian education get together to sharpen and share their teaching experiences.

That's the broad picture. Let's look at some of the operating parts of the Board of Education and Publication as it functions through its nine committees.

Committee on Education in Church, Home, and Community

This Committee has given special attention to the Christian home, leadership education, doctrinal studies, and community relations. It has prepared for publication various leaflets and program materials, and has studied boy's work and girl's work to encourage their development. This group also maintains an advisory relationship to the Young People's Union.

Retreat Committee

A workshop on camps and retreats was held at North Newton, Kansas, early in January for retreat leaders. The Committee continues to provide leadership for the church's outdoor education activities.

Discipline Study Committee

Studies in Church Discipline was produced by this special committee as part of a special assignment from the Conference to prepare a report on church discipline and the General Conference.

Editorial Committee

Policies and plans for curriculum materials and periodicals are the assignment for this body. This includes our graded curriculum, uniform series, catechism, story papers, summer Bible school materials, church papers, and other special study projects. In its work on the church papers the Committee is assisted by the Associate Editors of The Mennonite and the Editorial Board of Der Bote.

Church Music Committee

This committee assists the Editorial Committee in the planning of its music publications.

Historical Committee

The Historical Committee is responsible for collecting and keeping those things that give us better direction for the future because we have understood the past. The Committee is working on additions to the Mennonite Historical Series.

Committee on Educational Institutions

While our schools serve regional constituencies, they make a total impact on the life of our Conference. The Committee promotes and co-ordinates the program of institutional education through publications and conferences.

Radio Committee

In all its work the Board specializes in several mediums of communication. This Committee experiments with the radio medium through its program "Faith and Life" on KJRG, Newton, Kansas, heard every weekday at 6:45 a.m.—12:15 p.m.

Publishing Committee

This Committee draws together under its care the several agencies that produce and distribute our printed materials including Mennonite Press (a partnership operation with Bethel College), the Mennonite Publication Office, and the Mennonite Bookstores. This committee determines the fiscal policies of the Board, which include development of the Board budget and regulating its expenditures.

MISSIONARY PERSONNEL

An increase in missionary personnel is an indication of growth and progress in our mission enterprise. We believe such an increase is one sign of growth, especially if it is coupled with an increase in national leadership in the churches on our various fields. In 1957 we sent out 22 new missionaries and returned 15 for an additional term on the fields. In our national churches, brethren have been ordained as responsible shepherds over local congregations. "The Work Is Thine, Oh Lord," and that work grows.

CONFERENCE RELATIONSHIPS

Mennonite Biblical Seminary is the graduate ministerial training school of the General Conference Mennonite Church which numbers approximately 50,000 members with headquarters at 722 Main Street, Newton, Kansas. The Seminary is operated by due authorization of this conference under the supervision of a Board of Trustees constituted as prescribed by the conference constitution. It reports annually to the district conferences of the General Conference Mennonite Church and triennially to the General Conference sessions. As part of the Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminaries, described later, the Seminary co-operates with other Mennonite schools but remains essentially autonomous and continues to be responsible to the General Conference Mennonite Church through the Board of Trustees.

MINISTERIAL ORDINATION

There is still a need in the General Conference for great uniformity in the matter of ordaining ministers and the rights and duties with which a candidate is vested by virtue of his specific ordination. We trust that in the near future this will be accomplished.

The General Conference in its session of 1945 adopted certain principles of procedure which appear in the Minister's Manual. In order to make this important information available to a larger circle we give here a few excerpts, and regret that for lack of space we cannot reprint the complete statement. (The numbering of the paragraphs here is our own.)

1. Ordination should take place only after a person has been appointed to a definite field of service.
2. Before ordination the candidate should have served in a church, or churches, under the supervision of some constituted Conference or church authority for about one year if possible.
3. Letters of recommendation or statements regarding the candidate, his work and his fitness, should be available from each of the following:
 - a) A statement from the church or station at which the candidate last served, regarding the type and quality of his services.
 - b) A statement from the candidate's home church indicating his standing as a church member.
 - c) A brief autobiography together with a statement of the candidate's Christian experience leading to his call to the ministry.
 - d) Customary transcripts from schools attended above the eighth grade.
 - e) A written statement from the candidate as to his agreement (1) with the Statement of Doctrine as approved by the General Conference in 1941; (2) with the Mennonite peace principles; and (3) with the work of our Conference, its boards and institutions; and his willingness to support the same.
4. The candidate shall supply the General Conference Secretary with a complete record of all materials listed in paragraph 3 above, pertaining to his qualifications.
5. Any General Conference minister who hereafter ordains an evangelist, minister, missionary, or elder, shall within thirty days report such an ordination to the General Conference Secretary. (Report forms can be secured from Central Offices.)

The 1957 Statistical Reports of the General Conference

In this section of the Handbook of Information—the 12-page colored pages—is given the 1957 statistical picture of the Conference churches. Below, on this page, is given the summary of the reports. Although incomplete in some respects, these reports are better than in previous years. For all practical purposes the reports are dependable. Whatever else may be read out of them, they plainly do reveal a growing interest in and a concern for the welfare of the local church and work-program of the Conference.

Appreciation. The Conference office is grateful to those ministers who so conscientiously filled out the statistical questionnaires and promptly returned them. This thoughtfulness on their part effected a saving of both time and money for the Conference. For some reason or other some ministers could not act that promptly. Others perhaps did not quite understand the importance of supplying complete information; and 21 did not respond at all. Lack of co-operation naturally tends to delay the printing of the Handbook.

THE PURPOSE OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

(Article III of the Constitution)

The General Conference owes its origin and growth to a deeply felt need and desire for a closer union of individual congregations in order: (1) to establish more firmly and to deepen the basic Christian faith and to testify to its relevance to all of life; (2) to perpetuate and make fruitful great principles of our Mennonite heritage, including believer-baptism, nonresistance, nonconformity to the world, Christian simplicity, and others; (3) to provide a working basis for co-operation in serving God's Kingdom by emphasizing "in essentials unity, in non-essentials liberty, in all things love"; (4) to provide increasing opportunities for co-operation in bringing an effective, growing evangelical witness at home and abroad through the work of Christian missions, education, literature, relief, hospitals, deaconess work, mutual aid, and a service of peace and love; and (5) to promote "the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace" looking toward a world fellowship of Mennonites, active and united in Christian service.

HOMES AND HOSPITALS

Mennonite hospitals and homes for the aged in the communities of our General Conference have developed varying patterns of responsibility and administration. In this 1958 Handbook of Information we have attempted to list these institutions according to their pattern of support and administration.

- I. General Conference supported Institutions—
Those listed here are clearly recognized as General Conference institutions or supported wholly by General Conference congregations or districts.

III. MCC operated Institutions—Supported by all of the constituent groups of the Mennonite Central Committee three mental hospitals witness to the redemptive love of our Christian witness.

BROOK LANE FARM

Route 5, Hagerstown, Maryland

KINGS VIEW HOSPITAL

Box 631, Reedley, California

PRAIRIE VIEW HOSPITAL

Box 356, Newton, Kansas

Today's mental hospital is a community.
Gardeners, maintenance men, cooks, aides, nurses, social workers, activity directors, administrators, clinical psychologists and psychiatrists make up a team of therapists, each one fusing his talents into a treatment program designed to meet the needs of the individual patient.

In the process of this change, one factor is outstanding—

it takes people to make other people well again.

Some jobs in hospitals may demand more training and experience than others, but all require a common ingredient.

Do you love people? Enough to see the real personality behind the unloveable, irrational behavior of illness? Enough to give your time to lead a person back to wholeness? Enough to practice patience and hope, the fruits of undemanding love?

Then you have the talent.

It takes you — your time, your talent, your love — to make another whole.

INVEST IN THE BROTHERHOOD

Investing savings in the service of your church is one expression of good Christian stewardship. You can help to provide much needed capital to finance church sponsored assistance or extension programs and at the same time earn satisfactorily for your investment. The rates of earned interest returns range from 3½ to 4 per cent annually, depending upon the time funds are invested. Two major avenues of investment are available in our Conference Mutual Aid Services, Inc., and the program of church extension. We invite inquiries from all persons interested in further information.

WANTED: THINGS, DOLLARS AND PEOPLE

Three things are needed in our witness to the world through foreign relief and service work. We must have things: clothes, meat and other food; tools and supplies are necessary. People are needed to serve around the world as our personal representatives in giving a spiritual witness and a demonstration of our love and goodwill together with gifts of relief goods. Dollars are also essential. Without enough ready cash people and goods cannot be used. The need for all three items: personnel, dollars and material goods, is a very real need today. Millions of people cry for the help and the witness we can give. Will you give of all three accordingly as the Lord directs you?

Living Faith Graded Sunday School Series

KINDERGARTEN II

This fall we add to our growing Living Faith Graded Lessons series another course—Kindergarten II for children five years old.

Carefully selected and edited this course has a teacher's manual with a year's lessons, a set of thirty-six teaching pictures, and fifty-two lesson leaflets. (The lesson leaflets are available also in a German edition.)

Each lesson period is divided into two parts: "When the children first come" and "When all are together." For the first period there are suggested work centers for creative activities. The second session provides for singing, discussions of love gifts, and a Bible story.

NURSERY COURSE

Introduced last year, our Living Faith Nursery Course offers a set of three Home-Books, Take-Home Pictures, and a Parent Teacher Guide. This course is organized on an annual instead of quarterly basis so parents and teachers can readily select the stories, songs, and pictures which suit the children's current experiences.

PRIMARY, JUNIOR, AND INTERMEDIATE COURSES

Graded Sunday school materials for children through the ninth grade in school are now in preparation and will be ready shortly. The primary course will be ready in October, 1959, the junior course in October, 1960, and the intermediate course in 1961. Each course will contain material for three years.
